

Jorge Garay

Attorney,

Olson & Olson, LLP

Jorge Garay recently joined the legal team at Olson & Olson, LLP, with experience as a trial attorney at a litigation boutique law firm. private practice. Jorge's court docket involves ad valorem tax challenges and he assists with cases that involve business personal property.

Jorge received his Juris Doctorate degree from the University of Houston Law Center where he was busy with Moot Court competitions, the Hispanic Law Student Association, the Latino Law Student Association, as well as with the Houston Business and Tax Law Journal. Jorge's interests in business/commercial litigation are a good fit for the cases he defends on behalf of the Harris County Appraisal District. Jorge received his undergraduate degree in Philosophy from the University of Houston – Downtown campus.