

Not only does Adrian Hernandez hold the Position 4 seat as Councilmember for the City of Pearland, he is also the Executive Director of Keep Pearland Beautiful, a 501(c)3 environmental education nonprofit and local affiliate of Keep America Beautiful and Keep Texas Beautiful. Additionally, he currently chairs the H-GAC Solid Waste Management Committee and the NLC First-Tier Suburbs Council. He is also 2nd Vice-President of the Brazoria County Cities Association. Adrian serves, and has served, on various boards including the City of Pearland Parks, Recreation, and Beautification Board; Adult Reading Center; MOTIF Child Empowerment Awards; and the Exchange Club of Pearland. He is a member of the H-GAC Coastal Communities Water Quality Outreach Project Team, the NLC Energy, Environment & Natural Resources Committee, WaterNow Alliance, and the State of Texas Alliance for Recycling. In addition to all of his community service, Adrian is an active participating member of the Pearland and Alvin-Manvel chambers of commerce where he previously participated as a regional business owner for over a decade.

When not working on community projects, Adrian's personal life is fully occupied by 3 sisters, 2 brothers, 4 nephews, 2 nieces, and a dog named Amber. Prior to joining council, Adrian sang with the Houston Grand Opera for several seasons and continues to promote and enjoy a thriving art scene in our region. He enjoys attending live music or stand-up comedy events, traveling the globe, and even mowing his lawn.

Adrian holds a Master of Science degree in Health Education with a focus on human behavior from Texas A&M University. "
